Dear Harold (cc. Roffman)

Here are my tentative plans for a trip to the States in June.

I'll drive from Kingston to Clifton, N.J., on June 4, and will spend that evening in Clifton (or possibly in Trenton). On the morning of June 5 I'll drive down to Frederick to see you. Will arrive in Frederick the afternoon of June 5. I'll spend June 6 and possibly June 7 with you-- that is, I'll sleep at your place on June ~~5~~ 5, 6, and possibly 7.

Howard can tell me whether he wants to go down at the same time. If so, I'll pick him up somewhere convenient along the way.

Question.: Do you mind if I bring along my small dog, a poodle? He's well behaved, and probably will not be much trouble.

I have sent about 50 letters to booksellers in Kingston, Toronto, and ~~Montreal~~ Ottawa. Will soon be sending to Montreal, and perhaps to other ~~can~~ Canadian cities.

still,

Dick
